Digital Archives

What: Summer School Digital Archives
When: 23–27 September 2024
Where: Film University Babelsberg KONRAD WOLF
Bundesarchiv
Language: English
Costs: 850 EUR (Early Bird before 30 April: 800 EUR)

The Summer School Digital Archives is a 5-day, practice-oriented course aimed at people working in audiovisual archives who are interested in enhancing their knowledge about digital environments and processes related to digital archives. The third edition focuses on the subject of coding in audiovisual archives. We will emphasize machine-assisted processes, offering beginner classes in how to use widely adopted open source tools to support archival tasks: including metadata extraction, transcoding, data enrichment and file maintenance.
